HBASE Code of Ethics

Members of the HBASE shall be limited to those persons and firms who shall subscribe to the following Code of Ethics:

As members in good standing of the HBASE, we believe in, and accept, the responsibilities and obligations inherent in providing housing and its related infrastructure. Basic to these ethical beliefs, we support and will use best efforts in the conduct of our business activities to:

- Abide by the bylaws, rules and procedures of the HBASE.
- Conduct business affairs with professionalism and skill.
- Protect the consumer through the use of quality materials and construction practices backed by integrity and service.
- Conduct all transactions, agreements and dealings with customers, employees, subcontractors, suppliers and regulatory officials free from fraud or deception.
- Keep informed regarding laws, regulations, proposed legislation, codes, public policies and other essential information which affect our business interests and those of the building industry as a whole.
- Comply with the rules and regulations prescribed by law and government agencies for the health, safety and progress to the community.
- Maintain insurance as may be required by law, including but not limited to general liability and workers compensation insurance, at a level that is adequate and customary for the business in which the member is engaged.
- Seek to resolve controversies through a non-litigation dispute resolution mechanism.
- Adhere to the building standards as set forth in the Residential Construction Performance Guidelines, as developed by the National Association of Home Builders.
- Support and abide by the decisions of the HBASE in promoting and enforcing this Code of Ethics.
